The Measure R Citizens' Oversight Committee has a new chairman and vice chairman.

Greg Woodard, who represents the Home Builders Association of Tulare and Kings Counties, was elected chairman and Tom Barcellos, who represents the Tulare County Farm Bureau, is the new vice chairman.

Woodard replaces David Harrald; Barcellos replaces Gil Jaramillo.

Named to the committee at a Monday meeting: Stephen Tootle, at-large representative of the environment; Russ Dahler, at-large representative of bicycle/pedestrian/transit; Russ Desch, at-large representative of audit/finance/budget; Ron Irish, city of Porterville; Leon Sisk, city of Farmersville; Raymond Macareno, Tulare/Kings Hispanic Chamber.

The 16-member committee meets quarterly to make sure Measure R funds are spent properly. The half-cent sales tax finances transportation, transit and environmental improvements in Tulare County.
